

Typical Recent Alyeska Pipeline Service Company Web Site Home Page

[Accessed Aug. 11, 2012 at <http://www.alyeska-pipe.com>]

SAFETY. INTEGRITY. INNOVATION.
Welcome to alyeskapipeline.com

Navigation: About Us | TAPS | Safety & Environment | News Center | Employment | Contact

Delivering Excellence

35 years of safety & reliably moving oil

The Pump Station 6 Straight Pipe project has been completed. Thank you to the crew that made it happen. Read more >>

Headline Story

» TAPS \$5K for 35 Philanthropy Poll
And the winners are... » Story

Pipeline People

» Wes Willson
My primary accountability is managing the Pipeline Oil Discharge Prevention and Contingency Plan, commonly called the C-Plan. » Read more...

Pipeline Facts:

Thickness of the pipeline wall: .462 inches (466 miles) & .562 inches (334 miles).

Pipeline Reliability

July 2012 Reliability Factor

Reliability Factor for Jul 2012	98.24%
Reliability Factor for year 2012	99.67%

There was one proration during July that impacted the reliability factor.
There were 239281 deferred barrels during July that impacted the reliability factor.
Barrels Pumped From Pump Station 1

July throughput: 13,359,962 BBLS*
Average: 430,967 BPD
Year 2012: 119,348,117 BBLS*
Average: 560,320 BPD

*BBLS (barrels) = 42 Gallons
BPD = Barrels Per Day

For more information about the amount of crude oil that has been transported through TAPS, click here.

Twitter: @AlyeskaPipeline
#Oil throughput on #pipeline for 08/09/12: 340,753 barrels. yesterday

For information on reporting a pipeline emergency, click here.

Employees Only

- Email System
- New Employee Remote Access System
- Remote Access System
- External Benefit Program Website

©2011 Alyeska Pipeline Service Company. All Rights Reserved.
Site Map | Contact

“Pipeline Reliability” data typically appears in this position on recent Alyeska web site home pages. (The red outline box, added to this shot for ease of reader viewing, does not appear on the Alyeska home page.)